We are passionate about everything we do and every participant we support!

Empowerment support services
Giving choice & control

We are a NDIS Support provider on the North West Coast of Tasmania.

We established Empowerment Support Services with the sole aim of offering disability services that puts the participant at the centre of their supports.

Promoting independence, progression and growth whilst supporting choice and control at every opportunity in a safe and non-discriminative environment.

As a family owned and operated NDIS support provider, we pride ourselves on our personal touch which makes us stand out from the crowd!

With the range of services we provide, we aim to make a difference in the life of those with disability.

Our goal is to make each of our participants lives easier, fairer and more involved by participating within their own communities.
